

Questions for on-site bidding:

- Details for all companies involved (owners, contractors, subcontractors, suppliers).
- When will the contract be awarded?
- Where is the project funding from?

- What is the approximate volume schedule for each month (best estimate)?
- What are the volumes for each different mix design?
- What is the maximum hourly rate required?
- What is the maximum daily rate required?
- What is the maximum monthly rate required?
- What is the biggest single pour?
- Is concrete pumping required?
- Will the client be supplying any concrete equipment?

- Can we have a copy of the concrete specification?
- Are there any special raw materials requirements?
- Are there any special mix-design requirements?
- Are there any special testing requirements?
- Are there any other special requirements?
- How are the access roads to the batching plant for raw materials delivery?
- How far is the pouring location from the site of the batching plant (average)?
- How are the access roads to the pouring location?
- Can we reach all sites from our plant?

- What are the unit rates for all raw materials (delivered)?
- Is bulk cement available?
- What is the cost of diesel delivered to site?
- Is land for the batching plant available? cost?
- Is electricity available on-site? cost?
- Is telephone available on-site? cost?
- Is water available on-site? cost?
- What are the local wage levels?
- Is accommodation/food available on-site? cost?

- How far is the site from the nearest port?
- How far is the site from the nearest airport?
- How far is the site from the nearest town/city with spare parts supplies?
- What construction services are available on-site already (for plant erection)?

- Are there other Readymix suppliers?
- What is the chance for extra concrete volume in other areas?
- Are there any other special requests from the client?